

Annie Eva Streater

January 7, 1920 - January 14, 2007

ANNIE EVA JONES STREATER, the second child of four, was born to the late Edgar and Annie Jones in Shackleford, Virginia on January 7, 1920. She passed from this life on January 13, 2007. Annie Eva, known to her relatives and friends as “Eva,” was educated in the public schools of Shackleford, Virginia and at the Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore City. She was employed for more than twenty-five years at a local department store in downtown Baltimore. She enjoyed playing cards and board games. At an early age, Eva accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the First Baptist Church of Hockley, Virginia, where she worshipped with her family. When she moved to Baltimore, she transferred her church membership and service to the Metropolitan United Methodist Church. A few years later, she met and married the late Garland Streater of Baltimore. Annie Eva Streater will be greatly missed. The family and friends will continue to celebrate the goodness of her life. She leaves to mourn: brother-in-law, Ernest R. Custis, Sr.; devoted nieces, Carolyn Crump, Patsy Jones, Ashley Jones and Ann Marie Custis; loving nephews, Carlos Jones and Ernest Custis, Jr.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello ! Sterater's ! May I take this time to express my deepest condolences to u all. When death strikes it break the family circle. The bible say the time is coming very soom when no one will die again as Rev.21:3-5 say that all things will be made NEW. Great news indeed to hear. I look forward to that time and I know you all too. Ms. Annie lived a long age , almost 87 years old. The bible say at Ps. 90:10, some person would lived to be 70 and other because of mightness 80 years.May we awaite the time when all those in the memories tombs will hear Jesus voice and do as John5:28 says, please read . May all the cherish memories of Ms. Annie remain close to your hearts My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.###imported-begin##Lillian Crosby###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly tells us that death is our enemy. That same verse lovingly tells us that death will be destroyed. There is much hope for our loved ones who have died. Acts 24:15 confirms by saying- "...there is going to be a resurrection.." May you you receive much comfort, support and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises from the Bible.###imported-begin##Sharon Hill###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is so hard to accept, and it's so unfair that our loved ones have to depart from us. This was never God's purpose for us. He desires all people who love him to reside forever in peace and security without the threat of death hanging over our heads. Please find comfort in his word, which says that one day death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. Rev21,4. One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear (Jesus's voice) and come out to a resurrection of life. If we are obedient to our loving heavenly father, we will have the opportunity to see the fulfillment of his promises.##imported-begin##R
