

Annie Ford-Bey

March 19, 1928 - July 25, 2010

ANN, daughter of the late Claude and Eliza Penrose Stanfield, was born on March 19, 1928, in Halifax County, Virginia.

She received her education at Paul Laurence Dunbar High School, and attended Brisco Business Education School After wards.

Ann married the late Freddie Howard in 1947 and of this union, Charles R. Howard (who preceded her in death), Brenda Little and Freddie Howard were born.

While employed at City Hospital, she met and married Harry Ford. Out of this union, she had one daughter, Roslyn Ford.

She worked at Johns Hopkins Hospital until 1963. She then was employed at City Hospital for thirty years. During that time she was a union rep for fifteen years. After retiring from City Hospital, she then worked at the Social Security Administration and retired around 2003.

She leaves to cherish her memory: son, Freddie Howard; two daughters, Brenda Little and Roslyn Ford; sisters, Alberta Brandon; son-in-law, Kevin Little; eleven grandchildren, Marcia Brown, Shannon and Antoine Harris, Shantell and Shanell Turner, Charles R. Howard II, Shenell Merritt, Devin Smith, Aisha and Nishee Howard and Brandy Howard; a host of great-grandchildren; five nephew, one niece, and a host of other relatives and friends.

She had a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren who loved and cherished her very much.
