

Annie Gilliam

October 8, 1906 - June 18, 2005

MOTHER ANNIE GILLIAM, daughter of the late Reverend Stanley Smith and Mime Chambers, was born on October 8, 1906 in Durham, North Carolina. She departed this life quietly on Saturday, June 18, 2005. while a patient for a brief time, at the Brightwood Nursing Facility in Towson, Maryland. She received her education in the public schools of Wake County, North Carolina. At an early age she made a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, as her Savior. She later moved to Baltimore and married Ned Alvin Gilliam, Jr. on February 11, 1950. Together they raised a daughter Evelyn. Mother Gilliam had a very long and active Christian witness. She loved to worship the Lord, and whenever her health would allow, she often attended services at Gillis Memorial Community Baptist Church and often accompanied her grandchildren to Sunday worship. Her home and heart were opened to others. She was known and loved for her gift of hospitality. Her home was a place of encouragement, refuge and inspiration for the weary. She loved her grandchildren and they knew it. She was affectionately called "Granny" by so many because she nurtured their spirits as well as providing a "delicious home cooked meal". Granny loved to spend time with her grandchildren, and enjoyed many special holiday gatherings at their homes until her health began to fail. "Granny" always greeted you with a wide smile, and she will be sorely missed by all who knew her humble spirit, and the love she so generously shared among us. We will always cherish so dear the wonderful memories of the good times we shared with granny. We will hold them forever dear to our hearts.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
