“ My deepest condolences sent to family and friends of Miss Ann. I remember when I use to come to your house when my mom had to work late.

You and my mom Cynthia Crowell were so close in school and growing up when she gave birth to me 51 years ago she gave me your name as my middle name.

You will truly be missed.

R.I.PARIDISE Miss Ann.

“ To the family of Annie Hawkins-Martins. I send my deepest sincere condolences to each and every one of you. Ann was a very dear friend to me. We went to school together and I have known her for over 50+ years. She was a very kind, caring and loving person. I will truly miss her. Even though we didn't see very much of each other in the last several years, we've always stayed in touch. Due to illness, it prevented us from hanging out together. We always knew each other's mind and heart what each of us were thinking about. So to her children, grands, husband and other family members, I leave a few lines of this precious poem with you. It's titled, "If Tears Could Build A Stairway". If tears could build a stairway, and memories were a lane, we would walk right up to heaven and bring her home again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye. She was gone before we knew it, and only God knows why. Ann will never be forgotten, she will have a place in each and everyone of our hearts. Love, Peace, Blessings to all. I love you Ann, your friend forever, Cynthia.
