

Annie James Nelson

March 8, 1900 - June 6, 2008

Thus Annie J. Nelson, the daughter of the Abram and Emma Hartwell James, entered into eternal rest. Annie is the second of seven siblings. They all preceded her in death. Annie was born in Springfield, South Carolina and attended the public schools there. She grew up in Pleasant Branch United Methodist Church where she was an energetic and devoted participant. Annie met and married Napoleon Nelson. This union was blessed with six children. They migrated to Badin, North Carolina, and secured employment with the Alco Aluminum Company. In Badin, she connected herself with the McDonald A.M.E. Zion Church where she was a diligent worker until her health began to fail. Annie was a member of the Deaconess Board, a life matron of the women Home and Overseas Missionary Society, and a member of the Stewardess Board. She enjoyed laboring for God. She was a member of the Pythian Calanthean Joana Court 575. Annie was a meticulous homemaker. She relished cooking, sewing, gardening and preserving food. She always cooked extra in the event some stranger came by in distress. In essence Annie was a dedicated mother, wife, and friend. The absence of Annie leaves a vast vacancy in our hearts and lives, but we rest in the fact that she's in a better place than we could ever provide. Annie leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Jean Bagley of Los Angeles, California and Terry Patterson of Temple Hills, Maryland; a son Haywood (Melvina) Nelson of Baltimore, Maryland; eight grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins. Three children preceded her in death, Herman Nelson, Lula Lewis, and Lucille Clark.

Tribute Wall

“ Annie James Nelson

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Family May God comfort and keep you during this differcult time. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##A. Margaret Moore##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Terry and Heyward, I just learned about your mom's passing this week and was shocked to say the least. At any rate, I wanted to extend my heartfelt sympathy and commend the family to Almighty God who comforts and sustains us in times like these. Your mom's life is a testament to the faithfulness and promise of God concerning man's lifespan. Please give me a call. Love Always, Your Cousin, Minister Phillip N. Frazier##imported-begin##Phillip Frazier##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mrs. Nelson. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us:"There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about the wonderful resurrection hope.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear family, please accept my sincere and heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Living to be 108 is truly a milestone these days, and I'm sure your family gained a lot from her wisdom. She surpassed our life span which the bible mentions as 70 years at Psalm 90:10. What a blessing. But did you know that it is God's purpose for us to live forever? So he sent his precious son Jesus so that through his ransom sacrifice we might obtain to everlasting life. John 3:16 reminds us: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life. One day his wonderful purpose will be realized, and even the dead will awaken from sleep in the resurrection to everlasting life. John 5:28,29. May you find comfort and strength in Jehovah's promises to help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hello ! Nelson's ! I would like to send my condolences . Life is so precious to our heavenly father. We can look forward to the time in the near when on one will die, Isa.25:8. I am looking forward to that time. May all the many many cherish time spent with Ms. Annie support you all.##imported-begin##L.D.C##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Deepest sympathy to family and friends, it's often said that time is a great healer of all sorts of pain and sorrow, I hope that the time that has passed is helping you to heal. Memories are Jehovah God's gift to us in time they will help you to heal, may you continue to find much comfort in calling on the God of all comfort and tender mercy, he will listen to you, and help you to deal with this loss, (2Corinthians1:3-4) may it comfort you to know that others still care about your pain and sorrow. Let the memories of miss Nelson help you to focus not on your loss, but on all the joys and blessings you shared by having her in you lives for many years.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM