

Annie M Johnson

November 12, 1915 - March 8, 2019

Annie M. Johnson, daughter of the late Thomas McDaniel and Annie Jefferson was born on November 12, 1915 in Prince George, Virginia. God in his infinite wisdom called her to His heavenly kingdom on March 8, 2019 at 103 years old.

She received her early education while living in Prince George, Virginia. After relocating to Baltimore, she attended nursing school and worked as a private duty nurse for the duration of her career. Her final patients were Attorney and Mrs. Fine with whom she traveled extensively and became very dear to the family.

Annie Johnson loved the Lord and was a lifelong member of New Shiloh Baptist Church. Upon checking church records, it was found that her dedication stemmed so far back that staff was unable to determine the original date that she joined. However, at New Shiloh she could often be found ushering at the church doors or serving in the kitchen as part of the Culinary Committee. She touched the lives of everyone that she encountered.

Family members fondly recall the many patron ads that she sold at every function and telling her no was not an option.

She was a dedicated cook and baker. She was famous for her melt in your mouth home-made rolls and her delicious spicy collard greens.

All her siblings preceded her in death: Ellen, Rose, Betty, Armstead, Joseph, Ben, Fred, Thomas and Raymond. Five nieces preceded her in death: Theresa, Elnora, Anita aka Diane, Emma Rosa, and Ellen aka Pat, and one nephew, Cleveland.

She leaves to cherish her memory: four nieces, Wilhelmina, Genevieve, Helen and Kim; two nephews, Otis and Nathan; a devoted niece, Strassa, a devoted nephew Curtis and a host of family and friends.

Annie Johnson resided at FutureCare Nursing and Rehabilitation Facility where Gladys Fai provided her with exceptional care. Her feisty behavior and love for lollipops lasted until the end.
