“ To the friends and family, Its been over a year since you've seen your loved one but the Bible tells us at John 5:28, 29 that "all in memorial tombs will come out". This is a joyous time to look forward to. Please find hope in the resurrection and in God by reading your Bible##imported-begin##D. Samuel##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. When we lose our loved ones to death it hurts us very deeply. It also hurts Almighty God because he made us to live, not to die. The Bible promises that the time is coming when death, sickness and all things that cause us to be sad will be a thing of the past.(Revelation 21:3,4; Psalm 37:29) In God's new world we will be able to welcome back our loved ones who have died. The Bible declares at Acts 24:15 "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To The Gaither Family, thanks for allowing us to be a part of Mother Gaither's Mother's Day in 2007. That weekend with her and the rest of the family left an ever present memory that we often talk about. We are so happy we had the blessing of that time with her. Like you, we await the day when we will be together again with her. When that day comes we will never again have to say good-bye! You are in our thoughts and prayers. “ I wish to send my condolences to the family. I know you all are grieving, because the death of a loved one is truly heartbreaking. There are many scriptures in the bible that show how much our heavenly father cares about what you are going through, and he offers us much comfort and strength at such times. Rev 21,4 for instance tells us that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Your grandmother is asleep in God's memory, and one day she will hear the voice of Jesus, and she will come out of the grave to everlasting happiness. John 5:28,29 I hope that you recieve much comfort from your precious memories of Mrs Annie, so that you can carry on until you see your grandmother once again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
