“ I love you and I'm keeping you in my prayers. Isn't it comforting to know that when we are absent from the body we are present with the Lord and Lorraine isn't just in our past but she's in our future. We will see her again! We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 2Cor 5:8##imported-begin##Andrea Lay##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture as I have been many times.##imported-begin##sophia briscoe##imported-end##

“ Friends and Family of Lorraine, I wish to offer my deepest sympathy for your loss. We are all touched by this enemy, death by those whom know and those we don't. I share your pain and my prayers go out to your family. At difficult times, as well as the times that follow we all need comfort. A comforting scripture that's helped me is at Isaiah 26:19 which says, "Your dead ones will rise. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents of the dust!" May we continue to look forward to this promise.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ To the family of Annie L.Walker, my deepest condolences on the death of your loved one. The bible is full of words of comfort. At Revelation 21:3-4, it assures us that God will remove sickness and death. We can draw comfort from these words because at Hebrews 6:18, it tells us that God cannot lie. May these words prove to be a support and comfort to you and the family in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
