

Annie L. Wright

October 5, 1929 - November 27, 2002

Annie Lena Wright was born on October 5, 1929 to the late Robert and Cassie Ford Scott in Mars Bluff, South Carolina. Lena departed this life suddenly on Wednesday, November 27, 2002. Lena, as loved ones affectionately called her, was the youngest of eight children. Lena was educated in the public school system of Florence, South Carolina. She accepted Christ at an early age. While living in Florence, South Carolina, Lena met and married the late Levant (Honey-Child) Wright, Sr. on February 11, 1947. From this union, five children were born, Lena Mae, Levant Jr., Robert Joseph, Herman Wilfred (Wolfie) and Stanley Phillip; two children, Lena Mae Blyther and Levant Wright, Jr. preceded her in death. In the late 1940's Levant and Lena moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Knowing the importance of Christ in her life, she united with Shiloh Baptist Church of Turner's Station. Moving to East Baltimore, she changed her membership to Israel Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Mead. Lena's primary focus was on raising her children. Lena was a skilled homemaker who enjoyed cooking, watching TV and wrestling. She enjoyed tending to her precious dogs, Fluffy and Snowball. Her favorite pastime was talking on the telephone. Lena leaves to cherish loving memories: three sons, Robert Joseph, Herman Wilfred (Wolfie) and Stanley Phillip (Cuda); two daughters-in-law, Andrea Michelle and Anne Wright; nine grandchildren, Tabatha Blyther, Victoria Wright, Stephen Wright, Melissa Wright Powell, Dionne Wright, Ebony Wright, Robert Joseph Jr., Collin Wright and Corbin Wright; nine great grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, other family and friends.

“ Although it's hard to understand just why these things must be, still may you find some comfort in these words of sympathy. And in the thought that memories of the things she did and said, will keep your love one close to you through all the days ahead.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
