“ I wish to express my sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Annie Mae. May you find comfort in the scriptures where Jehovah tell us that he will "swallow up death forever" at Isa 25:8. May you find strength in this promise as well as the promise at John 5:28,29 that there will be a ressurection.###imported-begin###T.Taylor###imported-end###

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy to you and your family. I am sending you this message because I too know the pain of losing someone you love, and felt that this scriptural thought found in God's word the Bible would bring you as much comfort as it has me. At John chapter 5 verses 28,29 Jesus himself said that all those in the memorial tombs would, "hear his voice and come out." Yes, The Christ himself promises us that we can see our dead loved ones again by means of the resurrection. I believe him, and I am sure that you do too! Feel free to contact me at the above address, and again please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn of the loss of your family member Annie to death. This must have been a difficult time for your family. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. That was true when Moses wrote it, but that was not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But it was not the case before God passed judgment on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##T Nunnally##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. One day soon there will be no more sickness or death, because Jehovah promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more." Rev 21,4. As for the dead, many of them will be ressurected back to life. Acts 24:15. May your cherished memories be a source of comfort to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
