

Annie Mae Whitten

December 19, 1921 - May 11, 2003

Mrs. Annie Mae Whitten was born in 1921 to Mark and Etta Gabriel in Catawba, North Carolina. She departed this life on May 11, 2003 after a brief illness. She received her education at Iredell County schools. Most of her profession was spent as a mother and homemaker, however she did work as a domestic in the Baltimore vicinity. She was a baptized believer in the Lord Jesus Christ. She attended The Second Baptist Church many years before her illness prevented her attendance. She was married to William D. Whitten, Sr. who preceded her in death in November of 1991. Her hobbies were playing Bingo, crocheting and attending the Elk's Lodge. She leaves to celebrate her homegoing: her son, William David Whitten, Jr.; and many close and dear friends. Mother, I hold you to my bosom near, Of how you protected me in all my years; I remember as I roam, All the love of Christ now carries you home. I lift my eyes and see you now, For you Christ's arms have found; The way is eternal where I again, Shall join your loving arms once again. Lovingly submitted, Your Son
