

Annie Pack

October 18, 1914 - October 11, 2002

Annie Johnson was born on October 18, 1914 in Baltimore, Maryland. During her formative and adolescent years she attended Baltimore City Public Schools. After graduating from Fredrick Douglas Senior High School, she remained in Baltimore City and began to pursue her professional career. In 1940, Annie united with her loving husband, the late Lawrence A. Pack. From that union, three children were born. Annie was a religious person who demonstrated kindness and love without fanfare. Despite Annie's many obstacles in life she maintained her faith & belief in God. She will be remembered by her charming, beautiful smile, along with her spirit of independency, commitment & consistency. On October 11, 2002 while at the Forest Haven Nursing & Convalescent Center God called His daughter Annie Pack home to be with Him after living down here for 87 long years. She leaves to cherish her loving memories three children, Thomas Holmes, Myra Dorsey, and Clarence Pack of Baltimore City, one daughter-in-law, Mary Pack, one son-in-law, Timothy Dorsey, eight grandchildren, Michael, Raynard, Cameron, Wyetta, Sondi, Damon, Teira, Tarsha, and thirteen great-grandchildren, the Forest Haven Nursing Staff, and a host of adoring family and friends.
