

Annie Pearl Stokes

August 16, 1939 - October 15, 2005

ANNIE P. STOKES was born to the union of Walter C. Pope and Annie B. Jones on August 16, 1939; one of six children, two of which preceded her in death, Catherine S. Morten and Bettie J. Bush. Before her illness she enjoyed life, her family and friends. She graduated from Central High School in Mobile, Alabama, Cortez Business School in 1967; earned a B.A. degree from Goucher College in 1979 and a Master's from Morgan State University in 1983. She worked at various jobs in the business world until she became employed in 1987 at the Enoch Pratt Free Library; the Herring Run Branch was her last assigned branch. She worked as a librarian for many years until she had to retire due to illness. She loved her job and co-workers. She leaves to mourn her sudden passing: her devoted soul-mate, Joseph (Joe) Rainey of the home and Bernie; brothers, Walter Jr. (Carolyn) of Alabama, Reginald of Georgia; sisters, Eloise Cheston (Frank) of North Carolina, Lella Williams of Alabama; special niece, Kemi Morten-Reed (Troy) of Florida; special (sister), Shirley Johnson and friends, Phyllis Thorne, Marian Warren, Pat Williams and Jackie Purnell of Baltimore; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Annie Pearl Stokes

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ so sorry about the sudden death of your loved one. I personally understand the pain of sudden death as my one year old grandson died suddenly due to SIDS. what helps me from day to day is the Bible's hope of the resurrection of all who have fallen asleep in death. the Bible shows that just as Jesus brought persons back to life when he walked the earth as a man that he will do that again. our loved ones, so says God's word, will be resurrected during a time when the earth will have been transformed into a beautiful paradise under peaceful conditions free of all wickedness and anything causing pain and sorrow. please read these reassuring verses from the Bible: John 5:28,29, Revelation:21:3,4, Psalms 37:9-11, Psalms 72:12-14. if after reading these verses you find that you would like to be comforted further, please contact me at my e-mail address: kic2@verizon.net###imported-begin##kathy commander###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM