

Annie R. Jacobs

August 16, 1918 - February 15, 2007

Annie Romance Jacobs was born Annie Williams on August 16, 1918. She was the daughter of the late Sadie Tucker and the late Hugh Williams. Annie peacefully departed this life after a valiant battle with illness on Thursday, February 15, 2007 at home with her daughters, Phyllis and Barbara at her side. She was born in Person County, North Carolina and was the oldest sister of many siblings. She also received her early education in North Carolina. After her move to Baltimore, she worked as a full time teacher's aide at public school #88, Lyndhurst Elementary. Annie married the late Algie Faulkner and from this union eight sons were born. When Annie moved to Baltimore, Maryland she met and married the late Elbert Jacobs, Sr. and from this union one son and two daughters were born. Annie lived a long and prosperous life, and loving her children and grandchildren was her joy. Having fun at amusement parks and watching others having fun was her past-time. She loved traveling and never traveled alone; always having at least one or two children with her. In the early 1970's, she was a member of St. Paul's Baptist Church for many years being apart of the Usher Board. On May 26, 2002, she obeyed the Gospel and was added to the body of Christ at Central Church of Christ where she remained a faithful servant until her death. Three sons preceded her in death, Elbert Jacobs, Jr., Terry Faulkner and Clay Junior Faulkner. Those left to cherish her memory are: two daughters, Phyllis and Barbara of Baltimore; six sons, Lieutenant and Johnny of California, Curley of New York and Charles, Winkey and Leroy of North Carolina; one son-in-law,

Jimmy Jones Sr. of Baltimore; four daughter-in-laws, June, Marie, Charlene and Janet; three brothers, Aubry, Murphy and Garner; two sisters, Roxanne and Katie; four special grandchildren, Jamal and Timothy Jacobs, Tina and Jimmy Jones Jr. (Stink) and Mishon Faulkner, who was raised by Annie as a daughter; many other grands, great-grands and great-great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and very close personal friends.

“ *Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Death is a most painful event in our lives. We all long for an end to sickness and death, bcause noone wants to say goodbye to someone they love. This sad state of affairs was never Jehovah's purpose for mankind. That's why he promises to one day do away with sorrow and death. At 1st Cor.15:26 he promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." He also promises at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever. Nor does he forget those who have already died, whether they died a hundred years ago or yesterday. They are all in his vast memory. That is why John 5:28,29 says that one day all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. All who have already died in his memory will be ressurected. The Apostle Paul put faith in this promise, because he wrote at Acts 24:15, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection. I pray that these bible promises bring you some comfort, as well as your cherished memories.
