

Annie Mae Redd

April 9, 1934 - September 8, 2010

Annie Mae Redd passed away peacefully with her family by her side, on Wednesday, September 8, 2010. She was born on April 9, 1934 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Booker T. Moore and Mattie Walker Redd.

She was educated in the Richmond Public School System.

Annie Mae accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Cedar Street Memorial Baptist Church. She later moved her membership to Bethlehem Baptist Church where she sung with the Randolph Memorial Choir.

She was employed with the Virginia Rehabilitation Center for the Blind and retired after 20 years as the head cook, known for her delicious rice pudding.

She leaves to remember the joys of life, four daughters, Thelma Matthews, Juanita Crockett, Rev. Carolyn Winston, and Yvonne Smith; one son, Dennis Redd; 14 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; 3 great-great-grandchildren; two sisters, Josephine Harris and Madeline Redd; one goddaughter, Deborah C. Spearman and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. A special thank you goes to Antoinette Mines for the loving care given to our mother.

“ Please accept my sympathy during this time of loss. Even though the pain of losing a loved one can be a blow, you can find comfort in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28, 29: "Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear my voice and come out." We all look forward to the time when our loving God, Jehovah will eliminate death forever.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
