

Annie Scott

November 1, 1927 - August 5, 2005

ANNIE MAE SCOTT, the first born daughter of the late Henry and Deniece Moody, was born November 1, 1927 in Marion County, South Carolina. She received her formal education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore City, and while still attending school she began working at Church Home. Later she became a full-time employee at Lutheran Hospital where she remained until she retired after thirty-five years of service. She was a devoted wife of forty-nine years to the late John Scott. There were no children born, but she adopted and raised her sister's children after their untimely departure. Annie loved gardening and growing her own vegetables. She also loved traveling and going back south for family reunions. She leaves to mourn: adopted children, Valerie Hines, Danyelle and Gregory; adopted nephews, Simeon, Paul, David, Charles and James; adopted niece, Nadine; a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 rightly calls death our enemy that same verse informs us that death will be destroyed. What hope is there for our dead loved ones? The Bible gives us a real hope. John 5:28,29 promises that "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected. During that time the earth will have been transformed to a paradise with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Matthew 5:5, Luke 23:43 and Revelation 21:4,5) May you receive much comfort and strength from these divinely inspired promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Ms. Scott, please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Although I didn't know your loved one, I know what it feels like to lose someone you love and are close to. If I may share a comforting scripture with you, it would be the one found at Isaiah 26:19. It says, "Your dead ones will live. A corpse of mine-they will rise up. Awake and cry out joyfully, you residents in the dust!..." Imagine how wonderful a time this will be. Nothing but happiness and tears of joy. May we all keep our minds and hearts fixed on this promise soon to take place. This and other expressions of hope for our loved ones can be found in your bible. Please compare these to your copy and see them firsthand. John 5:28,29, Isaiah 25:8, Revelation 21:3,4##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ It is amazing all the love that was in Annies heart to be able to raise nine children. Our heavenly father does not forget the good deeds that we do. He also gives us a hope for the future when we will get to see our loved ones again at John 5: 28&29 we are told that all those in the memorial tombs will come out. In the book of Ps. 37: 10&11 it lets us know that the earth will be filled with meek persons and the wicked ones will be done away with. I hope you were able to find some comfort in these scriptures as there are so many in the bible to help us in our time of need.##imported-begin##Sharon Leasure##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to your family for your loss and your time of sorrow. Death is a horrible experience that we all must face but we have the wonderful promise from God that it will soon be done away with. He promises us this at Revelation 21:4, it reads: And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. I hope that your family can draw some comfort from this scripture and many more wonderful promises from Jehovah God that you can read in the Bible.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##
