“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Stewart in the nursing home where she resided. She was my favorite person to visit and it grieves me that I just found out that she had passed. We had many bible discussions in the last 2 years or so concerning the real hope for the future when old ones will grow young again! When "no resident will say 'I am sick'", neither physically nor mentally (Isaiah 33:24 & Rev 21:3,4). Until then, may the family and friends cherish the fond precious memories of her and may God grant you peace and comfort.

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Ms. Stewart's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.

As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, “Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.’ Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, “Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise.” Jesus statement meant that “All the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!

1 Thessalonians 4:13 Paul instructs us to not be ignorant concerning those who are sleep (in death); This hope Paul mentions is the hope for the restored Paradise on Earth, as Jehovah God had originally created for all of mankind to enjoy.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. May family and friends find comfort in the wonderful promise: "And he wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Condolences to the family and may Jehovah bless during these difficult times. I am adding a scripture that will bring comfort to you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

You have my deeest symphathy
