

Annie Wall

February 9, 1918 - July 11, 2002

Annie Wall, daughter of the late Kattie Lewis, was born on February 9, 1918 in Rocky Point, North Carolina. She departed this life on July 6, 2002, after a lengthy illness. She was one of three children, one who has preceded her death. She was educated in the Penal County School System in North Carolina. Ann came to Baltimore early in her adult life. She accepted Christ and was a member of Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church until her illness. She met and married the late William Wall. During World War II, she worked in the ammunition factories at Glen L. Martin. Following the war, she worked in the clothing industry, employed by London Fog, Misty Harbor and many other clothing companies, until her retirement. Ann leaves to mourn a devoted niece, Maurine White; nephews, Marion White and James White and two cousins, Pearl Forster and Rebecca Anderson; and a host of other relatives and friends.
