

Annie Pearl Whitt

March 31, 1938 - November 14, 2020

You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast because they trust in you. Isaiah 26:3 NIV

ANNIE PEARL WHITT was born on March 31, 1938 to the late John Henry Morton and Minnie Hampett in Prince Edward County, Virginia. She was the eldest girl of five children. Very peacefully and quietly on Saturday, November 14, 2020 she departed this life and entered eternal rest to reunite with her loving husband, Warren.

Annie moved to Baltimore at an early age where she met the love of her life Warren Whitt and raised six children. Annie received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and later earned her Associate Degree in 1976 from Baltimore Community College. She was employed as a Dietary Management Supervisor at Mercy Medical Center for 23 years until her retirement in 2003.

Annie was the matriarch of the family. A praying woman! A strong woman. She was the best wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother anyone would ever want to be a part of their lives. She lived a rich, active, and spiritual life. Her LOVE and JOY touched everyone she met. She accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior early in her life and never forgot. Annie was a faithful charter member of Ray of Hope Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Reverend Dr. Charles M. Franklin, Sr. and the late Reverend Charles M. Franklin, Jr. She served on many ministries, but she loved singing alto on the C.M. Franklin Inspirational Mass Choir, the best. She enjoyed reading the Bible day and night. Annie Loved the Lord with all her heart and knew the Lord loved her.

Annie was a “Graceful Woman” that dressed elegantly. She loved to strut down the aisle with her fancy suits and hats in fashion shows and during church services. Her meek and mild mannerism made it easy for anyone to love her.

Annie loved her family and enjoyed spending time with them. She loved when her great-grandchildren Kenyard and Amor visited. She also enjoyed being spoiled by her children and grandchildren; especially when her Grandson, Donnell carried her up and down the stairs or one of her children catering to her every need.

Annie enjoyed watching Westerns. Her favorite movie was Highway to Heaven, but Westerns was her passion. She enjoyed meeting and sharing stories about how good God was to her and her family with everyone she met. She made everyone feel welcome. Annie was full of life and laughter with facial expressions that cracked her family up, especially, when she was called “Annie Pearl,” because she was not fond of that name. She will be greatly missed by family and everyone who knew her.

Annie was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Annie leaves to cherish her memory: her sons, Michael, Dwayne, and Robert; her daughters, Angela (Ronald), Jacqueline, and Shelley (who preceded her in death); two sisters, Patricia and Monica; three sisters in-law, Eva, Sue and Margaret; two brothers-in-law, Maxie and James; nine grandchildren, Donnell, Tramon, Keisha, Tavon, Talisha, Quindaryl, Autumn, Robin and Kennard (who preceded her in death); five great-grandchildren; two nephews, Diron and Reginald; extended family members, Robert, Pam, Netra and Kim; three special friends, Rayetta Anthony, Sharon Wright and Eudora Giles; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
