

Anniebell Smith

December 30, 1927 - July 15, 2005

ANNIEBELL FAGAN-SMITH, daughter of the late John and Emma Fagan, was born on December 30, 1927 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on July 15, 2005. She received her education at Dunbar High School and graduated in 1948. After graduating, Anniebell worked at the Hecht's Rooftop Restaurant at the Northwood Shopping Center. She was a life-long member of Centennial-Caroline Street UMC. Her faith and her spiritual convictions were very important to her. She was involved in the church until her illness prevented her from attending church on a regular basis. She married the late Harry A. Smith Sr. on June 17, 1950, and out of this union three children were born, Rebecca (Becky), Harry Jr. (Jay) and Glenn. Annie, as she was affectionately known, loved to create things and decorate her home. She loved to sew and make crafts. She found comfort in spending time with and helping to raise grandchildren on a daily basis. Annie enjoyed music. She played the clarinet as a child and listened to the tunes of Nat King Cole, Elvis and rock n' roll. Annie enjoyed pets, especially parakeets. There was a time when she was known as the "bird lady of St. Georges." She was a good neighbor and well respected. She would help her neighbors and the children of the neighborhood. Annie had a hardy laugh with a wonderful sense of humor. She shared her sense of humor with everyone around her. A house filled with her children, grandchildren, friends and family brought her the most joy. She leaves to mourn their loss: one daughter, Rebecca J. Smith-Wilson; two sons, Harry A. Smith and Glenn A. Smith; sister, Viola E. Fagan-Pinder; brother, Thomas Fagan; daughter-in-law, Wanda Smith; nine grandchildren, Toya, Aarika, Tonya, Rachael and her husband Dale, Amanda, Harry III, Tierra, Jason and Alexandria; six great-grandchildren, Rashard, Rian, Aaron, Cedric Sr., Antonio and Teja; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Peace and Love! There is very little I can say to ease the pain that must be felt by the family, especially Annibell's twin. May you find comfort in treasured memories - from the "Point", to the hill and beyond. My prayers are with you all. Tommy and Vi cherish each other as sister and brothers should. Be strong and lean on God Only He can sustain you. Peace and Love! Grace###imported-begin##Grace Young Jones###imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.###imported-begin###Carter###imported-end###
