March 3, 1973 - March 14, 2006

ANSLEY MOSES JR., son of Ansley and Sarah Moses, was born March 3, 1973 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Tuesday, March 14, 2006. Ansley received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He had numerous jobs. He later became active in the Baltimore Westsiders Marching Band, as well as New Edition Marching Band, where he was well known for playing the drums. Ansley was well known to many people as "Bubbles." In 1993 he became a male dancer, called "Chocolate Thunder" in a group called Baltimore's Finest and later became Baltimore Ruff Ryders "Choc T" where he was well known worldwide. Bubbles was very well liked for his comedy. He always made you laugh whenever you saw him. Ansley Jr. leaves to cherish in his memory: his father, Ansley Sr.; his mother, Sarah; his two brothers, Dwight and Marlon; his sister, Monica; his four children, DeontŽ, DonyŽ, Ansley and Tyron; one uncle, Charles Flowers; special brother and sister, Braxton and Tammy; a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

“ It’s taken several years to address your untimely death. Today, I saw your memorial on Google and I decided to say my peace. I was so sad and hurt when you left us. I was waiting for the photo shoot that we had planned that didn’t happen because you lost your life. I pray that you’re sleeping in peace and May Your soul continue to rest. If you were still here, I know that this city would be lit with you and the old crew! I miss you and you will forever live in my heart Chocolate Thunder baby!!!!

“ WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME..... when tomorrow starts without me, and i'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me i wish so much you wouldn't cry,the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say..... i know how much you love me,as much as i love you and each time you think of me, i know you'll miss me too but when tomorrow starts without me, me please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said my place was ready,in heaven far above and that i'd have to leave behind,all those i dearly love. but as i turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye for all my life, i'd always thought, i didn't want to die i had so much to live for, so much yet to do it seems almost impossible, that i was leaving you i thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad i thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had if i could relive yesterday, just even for awhile i'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile butthen i fully realized, that this could never be, for emptiness and memories, would take the place of me and when i thought of worldly things, i might miss come tomorrow i thought of you, and when i did, my heart was filled with sorrow but when i walked through heaven's gates i felt so much at home when god looked down and smilrd at me, from his great golden throne he said "this is eternity, andall i've promised you,today your life on earth is past, but there's no longing for the past." "but you have been so faithful,so trusting and so true through there were times you did some things, you knew you shouldn't do. "but you have been forgiven and now at last you're free. so won't you take my hand and share my life with me"? so when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, i'm right here in your heart..... A LOVEN WORD FOR THE FAMILY... GOD BLESS.##imported-begin##rae##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ BUT I AM STILL MISSING YOU How do I deal with the days and nights that go by? Sometimes it takes a deep breath and a sigh The fact that I love you no one can deny See the problem is I can no longer hear you Though I see you in my dreams time and time Again, But I am still missing you It's that part of me that needs to mend This wound is deep so people coming to me with the band aid comments don't help They don't know your kids nor should I say have to hold your kids Like Netty, Shermise, and Tasha. They never wiped your tears away or listen to your fears some days Momma Sarah isn't doing to well I saw pops too he was cool I can't lie they are still so full with remorse and their grief hasn't yet run its course Look at me about to cry again and all of this is over my special friend This is because I am still missing you I try not to act a fool Trying to act all strong for Monnie who has given me strength over and over again But yesterday she made me cave in I mean this has got to be a sin for us to be so hurt like this Could you think about coming back? You know I went to see Dajavu last week You already know I wanted to seek for that machine to help to See you just one more time and reverse the outcome So Tyron could hug you while Donye and tayta fight to get on your back & Tay Tay well you know how he does he'll try to remain cool Yeah you schooled him well on doing that as a matter of fact That's one of the reasons why I am still missing you Hurting so deep because six feet is so far for me I need you to reach out to me just once again can you do that for your friend Therapy won't help this is something that just won't melt Melt like I did when you smiled at me those days were so wild with "B" Mommas watching me act up can you believe that now I am not half that tough? Its sucks that you couldn't get to see the new me all prayed up and things Your big eyes in the classics and all of our secrets Boy, I swear I really miss you Bubbles skolah.##imported-begin##roni##imported-end##

I saw Monie and Mark on Sat they were at the baby shower. They are doing well. I am sure you already know. I must say that your brothers are doing just what you wanted them to do. “ Hey bro, Its has been over a year now and it is still so hard. I can't even hang out at the same places because I am always waiting for you to come through the door and call me "short short". This was the first time probably ever that I didn't get ecstatic about my birthday because that was "OUR" day. Jamie Foxx has a song title "I wish you were here". The song is written for his mother but it makes me think of you everytime I hear it. I must admit that hearing of your passing broke my heart. I never knew how much I loved and cared about you til it was too late to tell you. Well in case you didn't know, which I am sure you did, I will always and forever love you. Its sad that you can't be here to bring more laughter and joy into our lives, But we understand you are needed in a BETTER PLACE to bring that same feeling that you brought to us. But there are plenty of memories WE ALL have to keep you alive in our hearts. You are in a place where there is NO PAIN or SORROW. I would like to thank you for helping me deal with my moms death and showing me that even when you have everything you want in life its nothing without the people you care about. From day one you told me how you felt about me. My only regret is that you never knew how I felt about you. In closing Ansley Moses Jr. know that I Love you and always will. “ Not too many people have signed your guest book since the last time I signed. I know that it doesn't mean that we don't still love and miss you. I have heard so many people have out bursts of anger towards God. In my father's defense I have to say to them that they must read the word (bible) and everything will become clear. As one of the lady's wrote earlier death was not designed by God and that is why he has promised to awaken us all and judge from the living and the dead. God is wonderful and awesome he is magnificent and his love reigns forever. Everything that happens doesn't happen because God wants it that way. We have our own free will and make our own choices. I just pray that we begin to make the right choices and study the word of God. It is fun out there clubing,drinking until we are drunk,getting our freak on with whomever however,and fighting for no reason. When he comes back are we really going to be ready for him. Will he know you or will he ask you to depart from him because he doesn't know you. This is what we should be thinking about and not being angry with God for taking something away that he didn't take away in the first place. I appreciate the people that can remember the funny Bubbles and cry from the joy that he brought. I understand hurting because I still hurt and so does his family,children, and close friends. Passing blame will not help us through it will only make things harder. The bible says"blessed are those that mourn for they will be comforted". God is not a liar so just trust in him and he will comfort you. You may still cry and the dreams don't stop but he will ease the pain. I love you bubbles and just had to spread a word to help deliver some folk.##imported-begin##Roni##imported-end##

“ Hey Choc, I have recently got up enough courage to visit the grave site. That was the hardest thing I have done in some many years. I know that a lot of people do not understand why you are gone and some times it hurt so much I cannot breathe. This is something that will hurt for a long time to come. I have people tell me I just need to get past this, but my answer to them is people have a hard time getting past something that they do not understand. Everyone seems to question the relationship that we had, but I always just laugh because people that knew the both of us knew that you more then any other was my son. You were spoiled rotten and it was entirely my fault. Yes I use to do things for you like you were a little boy, but it was my choice. Everyone is trying to stay in touch since you left, but you know that is not easy. I did keep my promise and go one the trip with Ms. Sheila it was a lot of fun and she is a nice person. I am sure that you know this but everyone misses you so much, we always talk about you like you are going to walk in the door at any minute. I am going too finished with school soon, and will have my degree. Life is so short that I am sure it want be long before we are all together again. God puts no more on us than we can handle and I just thank God for the oppurtunity to let Bubbles be a part of my life. To the family keep your head up. God puts people, things and places in our lives for a reason, a season and a purpose and Bubbles served all three. God knew his heart and he is at peace. He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best. He saw your path was difficult, he closed your tired eyes, He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly. You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide, You live on through your children, you're always be by their side. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. Your personality, your comedy, your friendship everything that made you you has gone on to a better place & left a vacancy in everyone who loves you hearts. I know your probably looking down on everyone and smiling w/that smile that brightens days. GOD felt as though he needed you know to "keep the party going" so we must not be upset, but you are missed. We will get to see you dance again one day. “ Love is stronger than death. So, I must be content to know that love is not affected by death- it doesn't end, it doesn't diminish, it doesn't change. Instead, love is immortalized and eternalized through death. And the possibility of that love ever being damaged or broken is eliminated forever. “ The words are hard for someone who was an amazing person in everything he did. He marched with The Baltimore Westsiders and we watched his little muscles grow, so he wanted to dance and entertain the girls. He was funny and like my own son, so when he danced at a surprise party for me, I ran from the room and he laughed and kept shaking. But one thing remains the same we love the man, the father and the person he had become. Bubbles had expressed the desire to slow down and take care of his family, he was due to march again this year with us and believe me when he practiced the other week it was like he never left. I have known Bubbles since high school and I only wish the best for his family, especially his children. It is hard to loose a child and even harder for a child to loose their parent. So to the children, I know how you feel to loose a father that you love so much and that loves you even more. Just remember that one day you will be able to see him again but for now he's protecting and caring for you in a way that he couldn't do here on earth. “ I would first like to send all of my blessings and prayers to Mr. Moses's family. I too has lost my brother a year ago,he was taken from us in a blink of an eye. The only way I'm getting through life,is knowing he's with my Father,Jesus Christ. What I'm trying to say is, Jesus has a plan for everyone, and when and if he need you beside him,he's sending his angels down. As I'm sitting here typing,I'm crying my heart out, because a year ago when I lost my brother, no one couldn't tell me anything. I didn't want to hear nothing what anyone was saying about how dying is a blessing. How could taking away someone so beautiful forever be a blessing? Once I prayed and prayed and asked God to help me understand why did he take my brother away from me so sudden. My God showed me that life in Heaven is the best life anyone could ever have. So when your heart start aching,pray,because when you do,not only will you feel Jr's spirit holding you, you'll feel Jesus holding him too. God bless everyone of you, and I'll forever keep you all in my prayers.

I look back on saturday, know that you have now seen the outpouring love, how many lives he has touched, and how many people are affected by this sudden and tragic loss. He was loved by EVERYONE, he made all of us laugh, and I will truely miss that about him. One of my fondest memories of him was when I couldn't do the "Ruff Ryder call", and he would always walk up to me and do it the only way I knew how, that was how we greeted each other. Ansley....I love you, miss you, and will always cherish the time we spent together. You are in a better place now, where there is no pain, no worries. You just keep watching over us down here. “ *When I received the news I was in shock. I could not believe what I had heard about my "HOMIE"...Bubble-Scola is what me and my home girls called him. It didn't matter where or who he was with he always stopped to give love and a joke or two this was his style and that is how I will remember him. Never forgotten and never will forget the good times.....Love Always Shey!!..... To the family: One of God soldier's has fallen don't think of it as a loss think of it as an accomplishment his job here was done. “ My sincerest condolences to the family of Ansley Moses, Jr. (Choc). The outpouring of love and support that I witnessed on Saturday was amazing, and it just showed that I was only one of many that saw a wonderful spirit in him and you didn't have to know him personally to love that spirit. He was an Angel, and my belief tells me that God does not make mistakes. He needed an Angel, and early that morning, he reached down and picked the best one he could. To the Parents and Children, find comfort in knowing that he has found a home in heaven. Rest in Peace now "Choc", your work here is done. You were loved by so many, and you will forever be missed.##imported-begin##LaShawn##imported-end##

“Choc" as I fondly knew him was a wonderful man and extraordinary entertainer. Although, I'm saddened by this loss...let us not lose sight of the fact that we live in a time that is governed by the hands of the master weaver (GOD), and Ansley Moses, Jr. was only on loan to us. I definitely enjoyed and valued the short time I knew him.##imported-begin##Tamika##imported-end##

“ Choc-Choc, It has taken me long time to get up the nerve to come here. I am trying to get it together. I know that you would not be happy to see everyone so upset. It is amazing to see how many lives you touch in your short well lived life. I know that you were always a happy person but it is still very hard for me to understand why someone so special to so many people would be taken so abruptly. You did get your wish all the family came together and we made promise to at least stay in touch. The amazing thing is that you brought the entire family together from the beginning and then you brought us back together. I have always Loved you and I always will. I was given the name Momma by you and that is always how our relationship was and is. I miss you so much it is amazing. It is not like I saw you everyday but when I wanted to talk to you I would and when I went to the club I would see you. I am not sure how the Ruff Ryderz will handle this in the long run. You were the reason for each one of the members becoming members in the first place. I can still remember when the Ruff Ryderz were put out of the group and you called me at 3:00 am in the morning yelling and asking what I thought about it and I said not to worry I will handle it. I also told you and Braxton you could do anything you put your minds to if you wanted to be the hottest group on the east coast you could do. Then I called you and Braxton giving you both daily inspirational messages for about a month. I also started going with you to private shows. You were so happy because you were doing what you wanted to do and you all were handling business. I also remember how some many people wanted to be support groups but, you put a limit on the amount of groups you wanted. Then we became a Family, and now the family is missing a member. Why did you have to go! Hey and we had plans to go back to Seattle and everything.##imported-begin##Tanya (Momma, Mama Diva##imported-end##

Maybe it's because of the phony people selling everything over and under the sun with your picture on it, from keychains, t-shirts, dvds oh and the latest, candy bars. “ To the family, you have my deepest sympathy. Although I didn't personally know him, saddly death is a bond we all share. Will we ever see our loved ones again? The bible says we will. It was never a part of God's for us to die at all, and soon he has promised to end all causes of death, and bring about a peaceful new world where death will no longer play a part. 1st Cor.15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Only Jehovah God has power over death, and he has promised to restore life back to those who have died. Please be comforted by his promises found at Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8, Revelation 21:3,4, and Daniel 12:2. Withour fail his promises will come true. Isaiah 55:11##imported-begin##R
