

Anson Lloyd Bell

September 7, 1953 - October 12, 2022

Mr. Anson Lloyd Bell, favorably known as "Bell" departed this life on October 12, 2022, suddenly at home in Richmond, VA.

He was preceded in death by his parents; Ann Bell AND Floyd Allen, his grandparents, godmother; Emma Williams as well as other family members and close friends.

Anson was born September 7, 1953 in Richmond, VA and was raised in Hanover, VA for a short period. He later moved to Richmond, VA., where he attended Richmond Public Schools and in 1971, he received a high school diploma. Bell continued his education and later became a master plumber, licensed contractor, and a proud business owner. He was always so proud of his work. Anson was very much devoted to his boys and loved spending time with them and other family members. He truly didn't mind doing anything for anyone and would show it. Bell was a very kind hearted and would often spend time and show appreciation to the elderly community (especially those who had direct impacts on his upbringing) in many generous hearted ways. The love that Bell out-poured was graciously received by all who knew him .

Anson is survived by fiancé`, Phyllis Bennett, two sons; Jahad and Malik Bell, stepdaughter; Jessica Brice (John) , stepson Mustafa Jones (Tiffany), grandson; Shawn Booker, sister; Catherine Dabney, godbrothers; Larry Kelly, Lannie and Gregory Williams (Sandra), along with a host of nephews and nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends, of those the mother of his sons; Resa Dillion.

His legacy will live on in the hearts and minds of everyone he interacted with as well as those he reached but never met.

“ Anson you will be missed dearly. As my stepdad you made the choice to love and accept me as your own when you didn't have to. Thank you for always being there through the good & bad times. The trust that I got from you in terms of your dependability was just priceless for me. May you rest in love & peace ❤️❤️🙏🙏
