

Antawn P. Hill

January 11, 2006 - March 20, 2025

On the morning of January 11, 2006, Antawn Perry Hill, was born to Antawn Hill and Erica Turner at Mercy Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. March 20, 2025 he bid his earthly dwelling farewell and gifted our hearts with his memory-as a ray of sunshine. He was a character to say the least!

Antawn was adamant about transitioning from City Neighbors High School to Baltimore City College He graduated (2024) a proud Knight and was enrolled to attend Morgan State University this fall - Pre Law.

He developed a liking for photography. You could catch him on City and Mervo fields flicking it up. Having that desire to stay fly and smelling good. Antawn kept multiple jobs. He was a respected crew member at Chick Fil A, Outback Steakhouse and Amazon.

Outspoken and quick to hit a dance move, Tawn liked to have fun. Never knowing the lyrics to a song - he loved karaoke. Antawn was always a complete gentleman. Very polite, respectful and known to buy flowers. With such a meek spirit he was always ready to help, very loyal and protective. Having an affinity for God, Antawn seeked Him even as a young boy and decided to dedicate his life to the Islamic Faith.

Grandfathers, David Turner and Michael Hall and aunt Lawanda "Tia" Gradner preceded him in death.

Antawn leaves his legacy to his parents, Autawn Hill and Erica Turner; grandmothers, Tangela Turner and Christine Wheeler-Hall; brother, Jamil Brown; sisters, Jada Cochrane and Jamea McMullen; uncles, Warren Turner and David Turner; aunt, Apri Parrish; his best friend, Khari Baines and host of cousins, family and friends.
