

Anthony Cecil Baskerville

December 13, 1959 - March 14, 2017

Anthony Cecil Baskerville, age 57 departed March 14th, 2017 from this world. He was surrounded by loving family and devoted friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur L. Baskerville and Joanna Kenner; and sister, Renee Jeter.

Anthony was known as (Tony, Toby or P-Funk). He was born December 13th, 1959 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Joanna and Arthur L. Baskerville. Anthony was their 4th child and their first son. The family resided in Churchill then moved to Montezuma Garden where Anthony graduated from Highland Springs High School Class of 1979. Anthony was a member of the freshmen and sophomore football team, the wrestling team and became a member of VICA. During his years, our brother took pride in coming to school dressed to impress which was one of his many passions.

Anthony started his career working for Siltstone Manufactory; later move forward and became a part of MCV hospital, Henrico Public Works and Richmond Public Works infrastructures. Anthony held the honor of training crew workers and installing new pipe lines for the city infrastructure during his tenure. Anthony was very selective to whom he allowed into his space, however he was a "People Person" and to know him was to love him. He loved God, Family and his close Friends. If he could reach out to help you in any form or fashion he would. Anthony left a lasting impression with everyone he came in contact with.

Along his life journey, Anthony became an Elder for the House of Prayer. He was faithful and loyal to his ministry and could quote and respond to any question related to the Bible. Anthony great hobby was collecting music from different moments intime. His music was his passion so much so that his license plates read (DON'T PLY). Anthony connected with groups like George Clinton, Parliament Funkadelic (P-Funk), and James Brown; he never missed a concert wherever they performed. He loved to dance like James Brown and do the split. Anthony music collection was a form of entertaining his peers; his mouth was a gift for gab and a way to catch your attention.

Anthony leaves to cherish his memories a son, Kyron A. Baskerville; four sisters, Jacqueline Baskerville, Gail Vauters, Tonja and Tyronna Jones; two brothers, Dwayne and Wendell (Penny) Baskerville; devoted step-father, Shelton F.Jones; devoted daughter-in-law, Shontele Baskerville; devoted aunt, Bernice Bryant; devoted brother-in-law, Floyd Jeter; uncle, Thomas House (Rita); aunt, Sylvia Boisseau; step-children, Tracy and Derrick Artis. Also to cherish his memories is a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and so many other devoted friends and family members that got him to his dialysis and doctor appointment etc.
