

Anthony T Bell Sr.

August 2, 1949 - March 22, 2016

ANTHONY TYRONE BELL SR., kindly known as Tony Bell, is the son of the late Jerome E. Cooper and the late Mary Bell. Born August 2, 1949 of Baltimore, Maryland he departed this life on Tuesday, March 22, 2016.

He received his education in the Baltimore City public Schools. Spending a big part of his life dedicated to his career as a truck driver, he traveled often and even acquired his own tractor-trailer becoming his own boss.

In his free time, Tony enjoyed fishing, old school music and hanging out with family. He was a very well dressed, smooth looking man whose favorite color had to be red because that's all he wore. The expression "gentle giant" describes him best; a big man with a big heart; someone you felt safe around. Tony spoke his mind and at times seemed intense but he was just a strong man with a strong personality who possessed strong values about how a man should act and carry himself. He had a softer side that was brought out by his long time companion, Camilla Queen; her kids, Odessa Vinson and Derek Burgess and the entire Queen Family. The stress of the world took it's toll on him, which led to a battle with diabetes and a stroke that eventually placed him in Rock Glen Rehabilitation Center. He enjoyed his time socializing with other residents and met many new friends there. He died of heart failure on March 22, 2016.

He precedes his brother Lt. Frank William Cox & sister Amelia Sykes.

He leaves to mourn: two sons, Anthony Tyrone Bell Jr. & Anthony R. Bell and his wife Sherry Bell; two sisters, Tonya I. Hayman & Carliss Cooper-McCain; two brothers, Glen M. Cooper & Dana E. Cooper; seven grandchildren, Daveon J. Wheatley, Courtney Gaskins, Anthony Bell III, Tyrese Bell, Alexis Bell, Anthony R. Bell II, Tavon Bell & Keisha Bell; two great-granddaughters, Zyonna Wheatley & Ariyana Bell; five honorary children, Theresa Dorris, Sheila Carrol-Ogle, Sabrina Fitts, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, family and friends.
