“ I want to share my condolences to the Boone family, Anthony was truly a part of me, I loved me some Anthony, his spirit was so loving, and just to see him was joyful because he always had a story to tell. I have so many memories of him that were so funny and I will never forget them, we have one thing in common and that is we stay on the internet, I will miss you cousin Anthony, you are in a better place and no more worrying now and your laughter and happiness will shine down on us and the sun will shine like never before , REST IN PEACE , Love always cousin SISTAH.
