

Anthony Graham Browner, Jr.

January 9, 1977 - July 11, 2022

Anthony Graham Brown, Jr., affectionately known as Tony as Milk Truck, was born January 9, 1977 in Baltimore, MD to Anthony and Brenda Browner.

Tony was baptized at the Southern Baptist Church at an early age. He departed this life on July 11, 2022 after a lengthy illness.

Tony graduated from Lake Clifton High School, "Laker for Life." Throughout the years, Tony dedicated his life to helping young men as a youth counselor. Tony was the first son of Anthony and Brenda. He was the only child for eight years.

Tony was a kindhearted and loving person who had a love for baking. One of his favorites was his grandmother's pineapple cake. He made it his duty to perfect that recipe, which he kept all to himself. He had a love for football from an early age, from high school, going into adulthood.

Tony played semi pro and flag football, and with that love for the sport, he became a die-hard Pittsburgh Steelers fan; which he was sure to let everyone know. Tony was a gentle giant, a family-oriented person, and he showed an immense amount of love to his friends and family, especially his daughters.

Milk Truck was the big brother to many of his family and friends.

Tony leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Anthony G. Browner, Sr. and Brenda Browner; two daughters, Ebony and Sade Browner; five brothers, Eric Browner, Sr., Sean Browner, Joseph Lewis, Anthony Lewis, Sr., and Dana Bushrod; two sisters, Ashley Browner and Dayshawnia Pittman; Seven aunt and three uncles; nine nieces and nephews; his dearest friend, William

"Moonie" Blue, and a host of relatives and friends.
