“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." It is my hope that you will be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Anthony D. Banks, Jr.: Death is such a sorrowful event, but in God's word we find a hope for our dead loved ones. This passage is found at John 5: 28-29, and it states: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Isn't this a comforting thought. In the near future, we may all see our dear loved ones again. With sympathy.##imported-begin##Von Holley##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26- "The last enemy to be destroyed will be death." What a wonderful promise, in Almighty God's due time , death will be no more. There is hope for our dead loved ones. Please notice Daniel 12:2- "Many, many people of the earth that are dead and buried will wake up. Some of them will wake up to have life forever." 2 Peter 3:13 says- "But God made a promise to us. And we are waiting for what he promised...a new earth. That will be the place where goodness lives. May you find much comfort and strength from these divinely inspired promises in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Banks especially his mother and father. I too lost a son in the prime of his life 9 years ago, and I can feel your pain and sorrow. What truly comforts me is the promised hope of the resurrection. Jehovah God promises us at Rev 21,3,4 that he is going to wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things such as what you"re going through now will have passed away. I hope the promises from God bring you comfort as they have brought my family comfort. Take care.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
