

Anthony D. Taylor

August 4, 1955 - May 31, 2005

Anthony Douglas Taylor (affectionately known as "Shady Grady"), was born on August 4, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the son of the late Marlene and Lester Goodman and the biological son of the late Ralph Justice. On May 31, 2005, the Lord called him home after a lengthy illness, to rest in His presence. As a youth, Anthony was a boy scout at Ames Memorial Baptist Church where he was also baptized into the Baptist faith. He attended the Baltimore City Public Schools and later worked various jobs. His interests included fishing, tennis and automobiles. He had an acute ear for good music and could name the artist of most recordings within the first few notes. Once the music began to move within him, he loved to express his enjoyment by dancing. He never allowed adversity to alter his zest for life or his love for people. It was this love for people and his willingness to sacrifice to help others that allowed him to gain popularity throughout his life. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Barbara; his son, Kenyon (Vera); his sister, Sharon; his aunt, Shirley; his uncle, Dennis; his mother-in-law, Ernestine Brockington; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Daniel 12:2- "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up, these to indefinitely lasting life." Many will wake up to a paradise earth and there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain.{Matthew 5:5, Luke 23:43 and Revelation 21:3-5} May these divinely inspired promises give you much comfort until these things take place at Almighty God's appointed time.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I'm sorry to hear about your loss. I would like to express the Bible's hope for the future. At John 5:28,29, Jesus spoke about the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Bible speaks about a resurrection of the dead.
