

Anthony Davis

May 12, 1965 - February 26, 2007

ANTHONY DAVIS, son of Willie Edward Davis and Willa Mae Davis, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 12, 1965. He departed this life on February 26, 2007. Anthony received his education in the Baltimore City schools. Upon leaving Southern High School, he joined the Job Corps in D.C., where he learned the trade of home improvement. He enjoyed his skills and often talked about being able to do the work of two dry wall hangers. His job skills took him to various places. Myrtle Beach, S.C. was one of his favorite places to work. He was a quiet, loving person and always wore a big smile. He was very close to his older brother Tony and his sister Sheila. He loved his family, but his heart was always with his children. He always enjoyed spending time with them. He leaves to mourn: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. Davis; three sisters, Sheila, Barbara and Angela; two brothers, Edward and Michael; two sons, Terron and Kamonte; two daughters, Nikoda and Shanay; four aunts, Marie Davis, Vivian Smith, Shirley Smith and Sarah Pringle; one uncle, Adolph Smith; three nieces, Priscilla, Sung and Brandi Davis; two nephews, Michael Davis Jr. and Jerome Cavaselis; and one stepdaughter, Tia Graves and Mrs. Maxine Weddington; and friends.

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Mr. Davis. Sadly, death seperates us from the ones we love, it's something we can never come to grips with, knowing we can't see our loved one anymore. My heart goes out to you . One day sickness and death will no longer be the cloud hanging over our heads. Death is the worst enemy we have, but 1st Cor.15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing" Family, this is God's promise to us, a world without sickness and death or other tragedies that make life hard to deal with. Daniel 12:2 tells us, "There will be many of thosse asleep in the ground of the dust who will wake up." And we can put our trust in anything Jehovah promisses, because his word never fails. One day we will be reunited with our loved ones again. May those thoughts comfort you, and give you a wonderful hope to cling to.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, please accept my sincere condolences during this time of your loss. Please read and find comfort in Psalms 34:18, John 5:28,29 and Rev. 21:3,4. God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these scriptures bring you strength and encouragement during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
