

Anthony E. Johnson

September 2, 1977 - November 16, 2001

Anthony Eugene Johnson Jr., was born on September 2, 1977 to Jannie Brown and Anthony Johnson Sr., the youngest of four children. His life was tragically taken from us November 16, 2001 due to a cowardly act of violence. Anthony attended Baltimore City Public Schools. He graduated and later enrolled in RETS Technical Training Center in 1998 for Basic Electronics. He graduated from RETS with honors in 1999. He worked for PE Bio Systems afterwards. Anthony was loving, caring, very funny, easy to get with, strong and very protective of his family and friends. He may have been the baby of three sisters, but he acted as if he was the older brother. He was affectionately known to his friends as "Fats". All who knew him loved him for his fun and playful ways. He loved to sit on his front steps and "just chill", play with his children, nieces and nephew. Anthony loved children. He also loved playing his Playstation 2 and listening to his music very loudly. Anthony enjoyed watching sports. The Ravens and the Lakers were his favorite teams. Boxing, wrestling, you name it-Anthony loved it all. Before his untimely death he was planning to go back to school and obtain his degree in Electronics. He leaves to cherish his memories: his mother, Jannie Brown; father, Anthony Johnson; stepfather, Joe Payton; three grandparents, Rosena Brown, Marcus Brown and Allen Lee; one great-great-aunt, Frances Brunson of South Carolina; four great aunts, Rebecca Rice, Parniece Wiley, Annie Mae Webb and Michelle Jones; two great uncles, Isaac Johnson and Richard Dunham; seven aunts, Daisy, Sarah, Patricia, Carolyn, Michelle, Shirley Brown, and

Dawn Walker; five uncles, Curtis Brown, Charles Brown, Alvin Johnson and Stanley Johnson; three sisters, Romona, Elaine and Toni; three brothers, Vernon, Lamell and Shawn; two stepsisters, Toria and Tia; two stepbrothers, Ron and Markie; three nieces, Samiah, Charlee' and Moneah; two nephews, Elijah and Sadik; two children, Anthony Johnson and Jada Inez Johnson; his soul mate, Tainia Sparrow; and number of cousins, friends and neighbors.
