

Anthony Eugene Conaway

August 17, 1965 - March 14, 2006

ANTHONY EUGENE CONAWAY, son of Doretha Conaway and the late William S. Conaway Sr., was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 17, 1965. God called him home on March 14, 2006. Anthony received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Through Job Corps he received his G.E.D. along with a certificate for building and maintenance. Anthony later received a certificate of completion from culinary arts school and his CDL license from Delaware. Anthony was always considered a "jack of all trades." "Tree," as he was known by many of his friends, was a very loving and caring man. Although Anthony never had any children, he loved and cared for his nieces and nephews, as if they were his own. He leaves precious memories to be shared by: his mother, Doretha Conaway; three brothers, James, William and Eric Conaway; one sister-in-law, Cynthia; four aunts, Marion, June, Denny and Shirley; two uncles, Leroy and Harold; three nieces, Jasmine, Imani and Sarah; eight nephews, James, Brandon, Joshua, Andrew, Chad, Kevin, William and Eric; and a host of other relatives and many more special friends.

“ Mrs Conaway and family, we would just like to let you know that you are in our hearts and prayers. We're so very sorry for your loss. Please find comfort in knowing that others really do care for you. The bible makes the promise "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." And the bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Is 26:19; Ps 37:29. Yes there really is Hope for our Dead Loved Ones.##imported-begin##The Green Family##imported-end##

“ Dear Doretha, This is the Melvin that worked with Bill at Hecht Co I just want to express my sincere sympathy in the loss of your son. When I saw you on the news I understand why you were so upset. At a time like this we can draw comfort from the bible. When you have time, please read Revelation 21:3,4 I look forward to seeing you soon, Melvin Green##imported-begin##Mr. Melvin Green & Family##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. As the days go by, please be comforted by Almighty God words which says at Isaiah 25:8 'He will swallow up death forever...for Jehovah himself has spoken it.' Yes, Almighty God will eradicate death forever and will make it possible for our dead love ones to be resurrected under peaceful conditions. (Acts 24:14) Please be comforted by these encouraging words.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the recent death of your loved one. Soon, Almighty God has promised, that no longer will death be something we have to look forward to, because he has promised to end all suffering, sickness, pain, and all death in the very near future. In the bible death is spoken of as an enemy which God will soon destroy. 1st Cor. 15:26 says, As the last enemy death will be brought to nothing:. Very soon instead of shedding tears of pain, we will be shedding tears of joy as we welcome our loved ones back from the grave. May you take comfort in the hope of the ressurection which will soon be a reality.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
