

Anthony F. Lewis

August 9, 1949 - August 3, 2008

Anthony F. Lewis born in Baltimore on August 9, 1949 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward and Mary Lewis. He was called home to rest on August 9, 2008. Anthony was also known as Tony, but lovingly known to his family by his nickname "Ooga-Ooga". He attended Baltimore public schools and later earned both a GED and a plumber's license. He worked for many years as a contractor/plumber. For a number of those years he worked as Sparrows Point. To know Tony was to love him. He had a smile and laugh that would melt your heart. He had a joy for living and loved being active. He also loved music, and he thought he could sing. Often with family members and especially the Dramatics. But everyone knew, when it came to the movies, Tony's favorites were westerns, science fiction and horror movies. Tony also loved to play pinochle with his friends at the garden. Tony's zest for life didn't even stop when he finally had to depend on crutches to walk. Not too long ago, at a niece's wedding, Tony led the Soul Train line and danced the night away. But Tony also had a serious side. He had a special way of looking at a situation or problem and finding a sensible approach to the solution. Anyone who really knew Tony knew that first in Tony's heart was his family. He had a strong sense of family and loved them dearly...and they returned that love just as devotedly. Even at the end he was enjoying an afternoon with family, when God called him home. Three of Tony's brothers preceded him in death: William, Elmer and Gary. Tony leaves to mourn two sisters Corita Gervais and Sonja Washington; two brothers Joseph Lewis and Craig Lewis; two brothers-in-law Paula and William; one sister-in-law Edna; two sons Anthony Lewis, Jr. and Shawn Lewis, and Kenyona Lewis; nine nieces and nephews Adrienne, Josita, Quincy, Durwin, De Jelle, Arnel, Tamiko, Erika, and Nicole; eight great nieces and nephews Darien, Myesha, Jasmin, Ashanti, Thomas, Justin, Sheryse, and Maurice, Jr.; and one great-great niece Destiny. He also leaves a host of other family members and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Anthony. Losing a loved one is truly devastating, and my heart goes out to you in your distress. Please remember that we have a loving heavenly father who comforts us during all of our tribulations, and he has a wonderful purpose to end all sickness and death in the very near future. Isaiah 33:24 gives this comforting thought, that soon no resident will say, "I am sick. Also Isaiah 25:8 tells us that Jehovah God, the Sovereign Lord, will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. As for the dead Acts 24"15 lovingly states that they will be ressurected back to life. This may sound like a dream to some people but we can trust all that Jehovah promises, because he never fails to fullfill his word. Isaiah 55:10,11. If you are interested in knowing how these promises will be fulfilled, please contact me on my e-mail, and I will gladly assist you. May you recieve much comfort from our loving heavenly father.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in your time of bereavement. To cope during this difficult time, you can find comfort in the wonderful hope in the Bible at Revelation 21:4--there it promises: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes, Jehovah God has promised that by means of His son's ransom sacrifice, death will be no more. Jesus himself promised at John 5:28,29--"Do not marvel at this, but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.." Death will be done away with one day and that gives us the solid hope of holding our loved ones again. We know this will happen because Titus 1:2 says that: "...God cannot lie.."###imported-begin###A. Robinson###imported-end###
