

Anthony Goolcharan

April 28, 1956 - December 11, 2017

On April 28, 1956, in San Fernando, Trinidad West Indies, from the union of Bhagwandeem Goolcharan and Anita Dalia, the world was blessed with the birth of Anthony Goolcharan. He was affectionately called, Tony, Blacks, Ashook, or Abdul.

Anthony was educated at Picton Presbyterian School in Trinidad West Indies. As a self-made businessman he was worldly and knowledgeable of a great deal. His knowledge of all things came from self-educating and self-study.

In Trinidad, Anthony worked as a rig operator for an oil company for many years. He went on to become the circulation manager/accountant for the "Bomb" newspaper. In 1991 Anthony immigrated to the United States where he became an entrepreneur and successful business owner.

Anthony was a workaholic and was devoted to his personal success and the success of his businesses. He worked 7 days a week at his stores. He never vacationed and only took time off work when he was sick.

Nothing meant more to Anthony than his family: his wife, Geeta; his 2 sons, Danian, his twin, Dolton, his backbone, and a beautiful daughter, Gail Goolcharan-Tulsie, the apple of his eye. He had a passion for fishing, gardening, cooking, and photography. Anthony was well known and like in the Dolfield Community, where his businesses were located for more than 20 years. Anthony also loved the Hindu Community; he made many donations to various charities.

Anthony left for his heavenly abode at the age of 62 on Monday, December 11, 2017. He leaves to cherish his memory: a wife, Karamati "Geeta" Anirudhsingh-Goolcharan, 2 sons, Dolton and Danian Goolcharan, one daughter, Gail Goolcharan-Tulsie, 4 brothers, 3 sisters, 2 grandchildren, Aaron Visay Tulsie and Michai Abdul Goolcharan; and many other relatives, friends, associates, and loved ones.
