READING OF THE OBITUARY

ANTHONY THOMAS HILL, son of the late Evelyn and Thomas Hill (better known to many as TONY), was born on September 10, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. Tony departed this life on the evening of November 5, 2019 at the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Tony attended Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Fairmont Hill Senior High School. He loved to play all sports, especially basketball. You could find him anytime at the court in Johnson Square. In his younger years, he worked for the Great Cookie and at the London Fog factory. His last place of employment was with Bon Secours Hospital from which he retired.

Deacon Hill received the Holy Ghost at 2320 Reisterstown Road after accepting an invitation to a family and friends service by Evangelist Tanya Adams who is his first cousin but he was already a member of Pastor Gilliams' church in East Baltimore. He was a very faithful deacon at the church. He availed himself for the saints. He was an active member of the Brotherhood Department at P.C.D.

Tony loved to eat, especially his cousin Pat Nelson's cooking. Tony had numerous friends and will be missed by all who knew him.

Tony leaves to cherish great memories: his two brothers, Vernon and Clarence; beloved and devoted sister, Shelia; two daughters, Nicole and Christina; aunt, Louise Hill; two special cousins, Rashawn and Sabrina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
