Anthony Kingsley Ceasar, affectionately known as “Boot,” was born on February 5, 1962 on the island of Trinidad to Albertine Ceasar and the late Conrad Wickham. He departed this life on January 21, 2004. Anthony also known as “Tony” received his education from St. Madeleine’s government school in Trinidad. Anthony migrated to the United States in 1978. He attended Samuel Gompers Vocational School in Baltimore, where he received his high school diploma and his certificate in auto mechanics. Anthony was very active and well known in the community. He was a member of Caribbean United, one of the first cultural groups in the area. He was also a founding member of the Trinidad and Tobago Association of Baltimore. Anthony was a promoter of his beloved Trinidad and Tobago culture; he was one of the original members of the “De Four of Us Productions.” Anthony was an avid sports fan. He enjoyed extreme sports. His favorite hobby was paint ball. He earned recognition in many tournaments including the Global tournament. He also enjoyed white water rafting. Tony’s mechanical skills were recognized at an early age. As a child, Anthony carefully dissected most of his toys and skillfully reassembled them. This led most to believe he was going to become a mechanic. He achieved the dream of owning an auto mechanic business. In 1996 he and his friend Sam opened Coldspring Amoco. Anthony married the former Melanie Walters in 1989. Out of this union, he was a father to two children, Stephen and Amanda. Tony was a loving, caring and passionate person. He was always available with a smile and a smart comment. Nothing was ever too hard for Anthony to do. He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Melanie, four children, his mother, Albertine (Tina), two sisters, Wendy and Antoinette; six nieces, two nephews, twenty-six aunts and uncles. A host of family and friends.

“ To the family of Mr. Ceaser, please accept my condolence. Our family finds much comfort from the Bible. One such loving promise is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May these words give you much solace in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
