

Anthony Lewis Makel

August 8, 1946 - October 26, 2003

Anthony Lewis Makel, son of the late James and Isabel Makel, was born on August 8, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on October 26, 2003. He received his education in the Baltimore City School System. At the age of nineteen, he entered the United States Army, where he served in Vietnam until 1968, during which time he received numerous decorations for his honorable service. He then joined the Bethlehem Steel Corp. of Sparrow Point, where he was employed until his untimely death. He leaves to mourn his passing: his wife, Arnita; his daughter, Lisa; his sisters, Gloria Burnett-Reed and Anne Stanley-Shellmon; his brother, Ronald C.; his grandsons, Steven Colby Watts, Camon Aris Lipscomb, Jr. and Myles Alexander Lipscomb; his mother-in-law, Rosa L. Hurtt; his two brothers-in-law, Tayard Reed and John H. Shellmon Jr.; as well as a host of family and friends. A precious one from us has gone, A voice we loved is still; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled; And after lonely heartache, And many a silent tear; There's always a beautiful memory, For the one we loved so dear. Lovingly remembered, The Makel Family Your work is done, my brother, my friend. Miss you, love you. John H. Shellmon, Jr.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you continue to cherish the memories of him. The bible has comforting words. At Isaiah 25:8, God has promised to swallow up death forever. This will happen in God's due time. May the family find comfort in this verse.##imported-begin##Albert Washington##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. Here are two loving promises from the Holy Bible: John 5:28,29 says: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." and 1Corinthians 15:26 declares: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." It is my hope that these promises give you added solace and strength in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
