

Anthony M. Dukes

July 31, 1954 - December 15, 2003

Anthony Maurice Dukes (b.k.a. Fell), of Baltimore, Maryland, laid down to take his rest on December 15, 2003 after a lengthy illness. He was born on July 31, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland, one of ten children born to the late Horace and Helen Dukes. Anthony was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and worked for a brief time for Oles Envelopes Inc. of Baltimore. Even though Anthony moved away from the neighborhood he grew up in, he visited them each and everyday. No matter what the weather was, they knew Fell would be there. Fell was a quiet-natured man, with a heart of gold. His doctor acknowledged his character by describing him as "A Great Man." Though in unbearable pain, he mourned the death of his cousin, Vanessa Dukes Bailey. He leaves to mourn: six sisters, Maggie Jennings, Joyce Regina Dukes, Valerie Hounshell (Duconze') all of Baltimore, Maryland, Yvonne Dukes of Essex, Maryland, Susan Hester (Ervin) of Charlotte, North Carolina and Ernestine Dukes of Troy, New York (three brothers preceded him in death, Clifton Brown, James Brown and Horace Dukes Jr.) Left to mourn are three sisters-in-law, Sadie Brown of Roxboro, North Carolina, Ernestine Brown and Joyce Dukes both of Baltimore, Maryland; also eight aunts, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many lifelong friends. Last, but definitely not least, he would want, he would want to express his love for his devoted nephew, who was like a brother, Duane (Joe-Joe) Long.

“ I want to offer my condolences to your family. I know there is not much one can say when a dear love one depart from us due to death however I just wanted to leave some encouraging thoughts that God leaves to us for comfort from his word the bible. God let us know that death is our enemy and one day according to 1Cor 15: 54 it will be swallowed up because Heb 2:14 say the devil is the one who causes death. Since God is a God of love 1 John 4: 8, we know death cannot be associated to our Heavenly Father this is why Jehovah God will correct all things caused by Satan the devil. Jehovah by means of his son Jesus Christ will resurrect the dead according to John 5:28-29. That will truly be a glorious time when we will be able to see our love ones again. We all can have faith this will come to past because Titus 1:2 states that everlasting life was a promise from God from the beginning of time and it will occur because God cannot lie and his word will not return to him with our result. Is 55:11. May the peace of God rest with you.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
