

Anthony V. Madison

February 26, 1959 - December 15, 2013

Some people spend their entire lives bringing joy and laughter to all who come into their midst. Such was the life of ANTHONY MADISON.

On Sunday, December 15, 2013, Anthony departed this life. He was born on February 26, 1959 in Baltimore City to Moses and Annie Madison.

Anthony graduated from Southwestern High School in Baltimore, Maryland.

Thereafter he joined the United States Navy, where he served eight years. He was a First Class Petty Officer and Boiler Technician. He was honorably discharged in 1986. He later went to carpentry and welding school and obtained a position at Sparrows Point Shipyard as a Welder. He worked there for several years and later retired in 2002.

Anthony enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, including traveling to South Carolina to visit family. He loved art, raising pigeons and dancing.

Anthony was a great storyteller to all who knew him. He could always retell a good story even if it was fiction.

He married his high school sweetheart Brigette on November 21, 1981. To this union daughter Chatel and son Ahmad were born.

His brother Dwight Madison and sister Sandra McPherson preceded him in death.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Brigette; two children, Chatel and Ahmad; granddaughter, Kaya McIntyre; parents, Moses and Annie Madison; sister, Lavertia Kelly; two brothers, Tyrone and Stanley; mother-in-law, Cynthia Hines; several sisters- and brothers- in-law, many nieces and nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I served in the Navy with Anthony aboard USS Saratoga while in Philly Shipyards. I was just looking him up online and found this obituary. Very sad as he was such a great guy and a pleasure to serve with. Have thought of him over the years and wish I had looked him up much sooner. R.I.P. my shipmate.

“ To Tony's Family:
I pray that you find some comfort in knowing that you are not alone in your grief. May GOD forever keep His loving arms wrapped all around you and give you peace. You have my deepest and heartfelt sympathy in this time of sorrow. Tony and I worked together at the Randallstown Post Office for quite a few years back in the late 80's, early 90's. Tony Madison was TRULY a loving, caring, compassionate person who was there for me when I needed a friend. I will never forget him and will forever cherish his memory

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
