

Anthony Rudolph Neely

June 9, 1959 - March 30, 2003

Anthony R. Neely departed this life suddenly on March 30, 2003, after a lengthy illness. He was born on June 9th, 1959 in Greenville, South Carolina to Roosevelt and Nellie Sue Neely. He received his education in Baltimore City Public Schools and also attended Baltimore City Community College, with hopes of becoming a Social Worker. He worked for many years as a dedicated employee at Woodbourn Center for children. Anthony also worked part-time as a Geriatric Nursing Assistant. Anthony had an infectious laugh and he made friends wherever he went. He loved music, good food and being with family and friends. Although Anthony didn't have children, he helped to raise and care for his many nieces and nephews. Anthony will be missed dearly especially by his Mom, to which he was her only son. Anthony leaves to mourn: his mother, Nellie Sue Thomas; four sisters, Deborah Murray, Hazel Ferrell, Mary Jackson and Rachel Simms; three brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins and a devoted neighbor and friend, James Brown.
