Brittingham; two grandmothers, Mrs. Joyce Jackson, Mrs. Mildred Brittingham; one great-grand-mother, Mrs. Dorothy Brittingham, six aunts, M's Denise Newborn, M's Shirley, Irene and Juanita Jones, Gloria Adams-Spence, Sandra Adams-Marshall, Rev eight uncles, John Brittingham, Jr., Freddie, James and Larry Jackson, Rev. Peter Adams, Rev. Carl Adams, Rev. James Adams, Rev. Steven Adams and a host of cousins and friends. Anthony, I know that you're in a better place. This will be my last time to see you. So your sister and I Shevelle and mother are saying good-bye. I know that you are not gone, But you're in a deep sleep that you will never come out of. Why did you have to go at the age of 17? Mom and me will miss you so much Mrs. Iletha misses and love you also, Though you're gone we still love you. Your Loving Mother Joann Brittingham
