

Anthony Jerome Samuels, Sr.

November 15, 1957 - January 13, 2021

Anthony Jerome Samuels, Sr. was born in Richmond, VA on November 15, 1957 to Alvin Sylvester Brown and Lolita Samuels Moses.

Anthony attended Richmond Public Schools and was in the school band at George Mason Elementary where he learn to play the trumpet. He was a boy scout in the Blackwell community (Troop 425) and he graduated from George Wythe High School. He was well liked and had many friends from childhood to adulthood, many of them were just as mischievous as he was. He would say "they were just being boys".

Anthony accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and was baptized at Cedar Street Baptist Church. After graduating from high school he joined the Marine Corp in 1979 and was Honorably Discharged after five years of service. After returning to civilian life he began his care.er as an Arborist at Bartlett Tree Company and left to work for Davey Tree Company. He returned to Bartlett Tree Company and was pro moted to Foreman Supervisor's where he remained with the company for 33 years until he retired. His hobbies were the love of work, five days a week for the company and the weekend for himself1 Anthony was an avid "Dallas Cowboys" fan and with two of his brothers they often times would be against their other two brothers who rooted for the opposing team. Anthony had a great love and devotion to his wife, chil dren and for his entire family. He was a kind, giving man who was respected by his family, friends, and peers. Anthony's final days were spent growing closer to God and he said he had "no regrets". He would tell you he "lived a good, rich and full life"!

On Wednesday, January 13, 2021, Anthony was called to eternity by his heavenly father. Anthony was preceded in death by his father, Alvin S. Brown, daughter, Jackie (Whooie) James and brother Everett L. Samuels. He leaves to cherish his memmy a devoted wife, Violet James Samuels; four children, daughter Lytanya (Poonaa) James, three sons Michael (Mouth) James, Anthony Samuels, Jr., Jerome Samuels; 13 grandchildren, four great grandchildren, mother Lolita Moses (Eugene), five siblings, Lynette Norrell (Hermon), Christopher Samuels, Pamela Flax, Kevin Johnson, Kelly Johnson, mother-in-law Marie James and a host of other family members; uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, devoted Bobby James.
