

Anthony Tyrone Smith

June 17, 1947 - January 10, 2008

Broken again is the family circle...our dear one has passed away. Passed from the earth and earthly darkness, into a bright and perfect day. On a quiet peaceful Thursday morning, January 10, 2008, our loving father, grandfather, uncle, brother and friend entered into eternal rest: Anthony Tyrone (Tony) Smith, Sr. Anthony received his formal education in the Richmond Public School System. Later in life, Anthony was employed at The Union Theological Seminary and worked with the Richmond Public School Systems where he later retired. Anthony received Christ and became a member of Zion Baptist Church, Richmond, VA, under the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Robert Pettis, where he was a diligent and devoted member of the church. He was full of life and loved by everyone who knew him. He was preceded in death by his parents Willie and Courtney Smith, son Anthony T. Smith, Jr., grandson Xavier Burgos and brother Willie Smith, Jr. He leaves to cherish his memories are his loving and devoted family, two devoted daughters, Regina and Katrina Smith: loving devoted fiancée` Ruth Walker; one sister Regina McFadden (Wilbur) of Charleston, South Carolina; three brothers, Robert (Flossie), Gerald (Russelyne), and Bolden Smith (Aljawana) all of Richmond, Virginia; uncle Leslie Smith; seven grandchildren- Reginald, Eayanah, Alayah, Tramell, Kashawn, Raven, and Keona; a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends. Among them- devoted friends Joyce P. Smith, Neverett Eggleston, Jr. and family, Rev. Robert Pettis, and Cornelius Claude.

“ I extend my deepest sympathy to the family of Anthony. It's such a hard blow to a family to lose a loved one, especially knowing we can't share life with them any longer. My heart goes out to you all. I just lost a very close friend, and I have lost many family members; so I truly can identify with your pain. What is comforting to me is knowing that our loving heavenly father has wonderful things in store for those who love him. He promises to put an end to our enemy death, and usher in a paradise of peace where sickness and death will be no more. 1st Cor 15:26, Isaiah 25:8, Psalm 37:10,11. As for the dead, they will one day be awakened from sleep by our ransomer, Christ Jesus, and if we are obedient to Jehovah's word we will be able to share in that paradise with them. John 5:26-29, 2nd Peter 3:13. one day soon all sorrow will be past; peace at last.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences are extended to the Smith Family at this time. My heart goes out to each of you for our loss of Tony. I will always remember him and his Cowboy Boots and his assuring, charming personality. He was such an amazing paternal figure to everyone including me, while I lived in Richmond while attending VCU and we worked together at A.D Price Funeral Establishment. I will miss him dearly but will hold on to the memories of him always. Love, Monique Cunningham (Atlanta, GA)##imported-begin##Monique Cunningham##imported-end##
