

Anthony Cornelius White

July 17, 1957 - December 23, 2013

Some say that death is an ending, however death is only the beginning; The Journey has begun

On December the 23, 2013 after a short illness, Anthony C. White departed this earthly life at St. Mary's Hospital in Richmond, Virginia. He was preceded in death by his son, Anthony Cornelius Jr. and father, John Henry Hines.

Anthony Cornelius White (affectionately known as Tight White) was born on July 17, 1957 in Kinston, North Carolina. He was the son of John Henry Hines and Lydia Richardson. Anthony was raised in a Christian home with deep Christian values principals and most of all plenty of love. To friends and family he was thoughtful and supportive.

Anthony always demonstrated a strong love and affection for his grandchildren; they were the best part of his life. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. If you needed some good food he was the chef to call upon.

Anthony accepted Jesus Christ as his personal savior at an early age. He began his work in the vineyard by joining St. Peters Church in Dover, North Carolina, where he served on the usher board.

Anthony attended public school in Fort Barnwell, North Carolina and graduated from West Craven High School in Vanceboro. While attending high school, he drove the school bus, played softball, basketball and studied brick masonry. After graduation, he attended Lenoir Community College pursuing a degree in Architecture. In 1978, Anthony relocated to Richmond, Virginia to have a better life for himself.

In 1997, he married Donzella Cole, and from that union no children were born. Anthony was employed with Reynolds Metal for a number of years, as well as General Electric. Anthony was contracted to work in janitorial service for over fifteen years until his death.

We were blessed to have Anthony with us for 56 years, however God had another assignment.

He leaves to cherish loving memories, his wife, Donzella Cole and a devoted mother, Lydia Richardson; three daughters, Katasha Roberts, Taye White and Sheba Cole; son, Arthur Cole; one adopted brother, Bishop Malcolm Johnson; three sister, Shelia Richardson, Elder Rosa Williams and Stephanie Hines; two aunts, Carolyn Ferguson (Rufus) and Mateleine Kelly; one uncle, Delano White (Brenda); eight grandchildren and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ To Rosa Clark-Williams and the White Family,

I love you and my thoughts and prayers are with your family during this time. I cannot say that I know how you feel, but I have been through the Valley of Baca. One thing is for sure: God will wipe the tears away.

Love,
I.G.

“ *To the White Family,
I just wanted to share with you what helped me during my time of loss. The bible at Revelation 21:4 says 'there will be no more sickness, death or pain'. What a wonderful hope. Then it says at Isaiah 25:8 that 'God will swallow up death forever'. These scriptures brings us much comfort. And we know these things will happen because Titus 1:2 says that God cannot lie. Well I do hope these scripture have brought you some comfort and if you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.*

“ To the family of Mr. White I would like to extend my deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your love one. Please remember there is a hope to see your love one once again at Acts 24:15 Which read " There is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. My prayers are with your family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May it help you to know that death was not in God's plan, but Adam sinned so sin and death entered into the world. Yet because of God's love for us and he knowing the pain that death brings to families, he will get rid of death forever, that is why he says at 1 Corinthians 15:26: And as the last enemy death is brought to nothing. I hope these facts, bring you and your family some comfort during your difficult days ahead and time of need.
