

Antoine Dominique Carter

February 18, 1978 - October 30, 2003

Antoine D. Carter, the son of Wanda Carter and Charles Moss, was born on February 18, 1978 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 30, 2003 after an untimely death. Antoine was affectionately called Dimmie, by his family and friends. To know Dimmie was to know basketball was his first love and Allen Iverson was his role model, playing playstation two or any arcade game was one of the many hobbies he liked to do. Dimmie was very street wise and loved hanging with the homeboys. Dimmie received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He later was married to Ms. Sharelle Murphy in March 1998. Dimmie always attended church from a little boy on up to manhood, where he decided to give his life completely to Jesus Christ and he was baptized in September 2003. He was a devoted worker to his job at the Patuxent Industry Co. Dimmie loved spending time with his family and many friends. The love he had for his kids could never be put into words. It was always shown from the time he spent, the things he did and the love he gave. Dimmie was a more than a father, a big brother, a nephew and an uncle. He was a real friend, a family man and a strong caring, peaceful and giving person when he was called on for help. Dimmie's love for his two daughters, Torey and Faith will live on forever. Even though his body is gone, his spirit will live forever. Dimmie leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Wanda Carter; father, Charles Moss; two daughters, Torey Bell and Faith Carter; three sisters, Keisha, Nia and Meka; two brothers, Tony and Little Mo; three aunts, Vicki, Sandra and Karen; two uncles, Roy and John; five nieces, one nephew, a very special great-aunt, Aunt Sara, Dimmie had a very special devoted friend, Kesha and son, a host of great-aunts, uncles, cousins and dear friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
