

Antoine Trenton "Tony" Jasper

January 6, 1963 - February 1, 2021

Antoine Trenton Jasper, was the fourth child born to Burley T. Jasper and Julia M. Jasper Jones on January 6, 1963. Antoine's friends and family affectionately call him by his nickname, "Tony."

Tony was born into a military family. He was baptized at an early age in the Roman Catholic Church. In addition to being a product of the Richmond Public School System, he also received his early education in California, Libya, England, and Nebraska. While attending Open High School in Richmond, Virginia; Tony was an excellent student.

Tony served in the United States Army and the Army Reserve where he received training as a Nurse. Tony also served in the United States National Guard. Tony was honorably discharged as a disabled veteran.

"It takes time for human beings to blossom into something special", Tony's pride and joy was his son, Darren. He was so proud of the man that Darren has become. Tony loved his family. He spent a lot of time with his nephew, Antoine, who fondly remembers him as always being there. The family mostly remembers Tony for his deep thought and peaceful ways, but when he found something funny, his bursts of laughter.

On Monday, February 1, 2021, Tony was called to his heavenly home. Left to cherish his memory, father, Burley T. Jasper; mother, Julia M. Jasper Jones; one son, Darren Gibbs; three sisters, Burlita Jasper, Genesisia James and Wheknown Jasper Booker (Thomas); two brothers, Julian Jasper and Jabbar Jasper; one niece, Sadirah Jasper; three nephews, Antoine Anderson, Cameron Booker and Byron Booker and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“COME TO ME”

In tears, we saw you leaving us, we watched you fade away,
You faced your challenge with courage, and all we could do was pray.
But still you kept on fighting, until the very end,
And still we kept on praying, for your eyes to open again.
God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be,
So, he put his arms around you, and whispered, “Come to me”
