

Antoine W. Williams

August 22, 1979 - December 10, 2001

Antoine Wendell Williams (Twan), son of Lawrence and Valerie Price, was born on August 22, 1979 in Baltimore, Maryland. Suddenly, he departed this life on December 10, 2001. He received his education at Frederick Douglas High School. Antoine enjoyed sports, especially basketball. At age eight, he played little league baseball for James Mosher (Giants). He played varsity basketball for Frederick Douglas High School. Antoine was a member of St. Gregory the Great Church. He attended Sunday school there. Antoine loved and adored his Grandmother Elsie, who called him "Killerbee." He enjoyed going with his grandmother every Saturday to Pikesville to watch as his Uncle Tony and cousin Kirk played football. He received many trophies throughout his sporting career and played basketball for many recreations centers and was known for his defense. Antoine was a great storyteller, "I mean a great storyteller." Twan made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true, devoted son. He loved his brother, "Buddy." Twan loved children, especially his cousins. He was known for his humor. His favorite saying was "I'm not a bad looking guy." Antoine leaves to mourn: his mother and father, Valerie and Lawrence Price; his biological father, Wendell Williams; three brothers, Lawrence Price Jr., Dimmiquie and Joshua Williams; two grandmothers, Elsie H. Hicks and Minnie Williams; godmother, Tussy; two godfathers, George Raikes and Irvin Veney; a host of aunts, uncles, and cousins, including a devoted cousin, Frank Toppin; a devoted friend, Ashley and her son, Rob; and many friends especially from Winchester Apartment Complex. A special thanks you to Lamar, Doreen, Gee-Gee and Mr. and Mrs. Deron Hicks for giving Antoine a dream vacation to Boca Raton, Florida.

“ No words can express the sorrow that myself and other members of this family feel at this time.I feel as if I have lost my very own son, which in a sense is what Antoine was to me. I truly hope Antoine finds the peace in heaven,he so desperately seeked here on Earth. Much love and heartfelt sympathy from Antoine's Godfather to the rest of my family, The Prices and The Hicks.##imported-begin##Irvin Veney Jr.##imported-end##
