

Antoinette B. Rogers

July 19, 1941 - May 21, 2004

Antoinette Rogers, daughter of the late Mabel Blackston and Frank Brown, was born on July 19, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland, after a lengthy illness. God saw that the hills were getting hard to climb. He took her into His loving arms and peacefully called her home on May 21, 2004 at 5:10 a.m. Antoinette received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended various colleges. She also had many jobs-as an Early Childhood Teacher, Certified Day Care Assistant, Certified Nursing Assistant and Teacher's Aide. She also worked at various restaurants. She finally retired at age sixty-two. Antoinette was a very unique woman, well educated. She was an avid lover of books and also a collector. She read almost half of a library in her lifetime. Her two girls Myra and Pam were her life. She loved them with a passion. She met Samuel Rogers at age thirteen and later they became husband and wife. Antoinette was a giving, caring, softhearted, emotional woman. She spent her spare time with her sisters at family gatherings at their homes where she enjoyed fish, potato salad and turkey wings. On other occasions you would find her in the company of her daughters, at Myra or Pam's house. She loved her grandchildren dearly. She leaves to mourn: her husband of twenty-nine years, Samuel Rogers; two daughters, Pam Blackwell and Myra Brown; one stepson, Kevin; five sisters, Katherine Thomas, Dorothy Mae Goodman, Mabel Johnson, Lillian and Vilma; five brothers, Daniel, William, Charlie, Garrison and Vernon Brown; one son-in-law, Ernest Blackwell; two sisters-in-law, Earline Brown and Linda Chilson; seven grandchildren, Sareena Jones, Aaron Blackwell, Jamaar Blackwell, David Lightner, Omar Lightner, Shanel Lightner and Samuel Lightner; three great-grandchildren, Najiah Lightner, Kaniya Lightner and Dejahna Lightner; two godsons, Mark Alston and Kennon Matthews; best friend, Mrs. Rose; and a host of other friends, nieces and nephews.

“ My condolences to the family on the loss o your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort and solace from the Bible. This I share with you. Isaiah 26:19 says- "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." Jesus Christ confirmed this at John 5:28,29 when he said- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May these words also bring you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
