

ANTOINETTE HARRISON HAMM

October 19, 1957 - July 29, 2020

Antoinette Harrison-Hamm, daughter of the late Eva Mae Gray and the late Carl Harrison, was born on October 19, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed her physical life and entered into her eternal life on July 29, 2020 after a lengthy battle with cancer.

Antoinette received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools System and later received her Associates Degree from the Community College of Baltimore in Early Childhood Education.

After college she started her career with the Department of Social Services and after 30 years of dedicated service she retired on August 31, 2017.

After retirement, Antoinette rekindled her relationship with her high school sweetheart, Tyrone. After reminiscing about their love and fond memories of their prom they were married in September of 2019. Tyrone called her his "Hun Bun".

Antoinette was affectionately called and loved as "Auntnette" by almost everyone and as "Anta" to her late mother, Eva, and big sister, Roxanne. Mere words cannot describe Antoinette as a person. As a matter of fact, it would take a book to sum up just how loving, caring, affectionate, and giving she truly was. The vendors in Northeast Market and all the other million stores that she and Roxanne went to on Saturday's would confirm it too. Her family and friends meant the world to her and she made sure to convey that to each and every one of them all the time.

Antoinette was all heart and had no problems crying or showing emotions, but she certainly was no pushover either. If being bossy was a Gift of the Spirit in the Bible, it would be a Heavenly picture of her smiling. She wanted to be in charge of everything that went on or at least had her hands in it. She never had any children but she took care of her brothers and sisters' children like they were her own and that's how she inherited her name "Auntnette".

Antoinette loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ with all her heart, mind, soul and Spirit. She gave her life to Christ at an early age and followed Him until He led her to her Heavenly home. She was a member of the United Baptist Church and loved going to hear her pastor, Rev. Carl J. Solomon, teach and preach "What thus saith the Lord" every week.

Antoinette was preceded in death by her father, Carl Harrison; mother, Eva Mae Gray; and two brothers, Carlton Harrison and Tracy Harrison.

She leaves to cherish her memory: loving husband, Tyrone; sister and best friend, Roxanne McDaniel-Washington (Andrew); brother, Roger Gray (Ivy); three nieces, Nikki Cooper-Dunlap (Shirell), Tonia Harrison and Aisha Gray; two nephews, Damion Cooper and Angelo Harrison; a special cousin and friend, Tania Gray-Cunningham (John); cousins, Tia and Terrell McKelvin; and a host of great nieces, nephews and friends.

Auntnette, Anta and Hun Bun will be truly missed by everyone, but she is now in eternal peace with her Heavenly Father. To God be the glory.
