

Antoinette Bernice Hutchins

April 16, 1956 - May 2, 2013

ANTOINETTE BERNICE HUTCHINS, daughter of the late Robert Gunther and Bernice Hutchins, was born on April 16, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on May 2, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System and obtained her GED from Sojourner Douglass College. In 1999, she became a dedicated employee of Greater Baltimore Medical Center for thirteen years. "Aunt Annette," as everyone called her, was outgoing, energetic and fun-loving, even during her final struggle with Heart Disease, she was so full of life and love; a (strong) woman she was. She had lots of love for everyone; especially her twin brother, Tony and her grandchildren. She touched the lives of everyone that knew her. She had the ability to make everyone feel like their relationship with her was both special and unique. That's how Special she was. She was the epitome of an Aunt, Sister and truly loving Mother. The bond between Annette and her son, Maurice was the kind of bond that only a mother and son can have. To see Annette with her daughter, Jerkeria was to witness not only a love between mother and daughter, but also a true friendship that only can be shared between the best of friends. She was a loyal friend with a huge heart. Annette truly enjoyed helping and serving others. Playing the Lottery and Reading were her all-time favorite pastimes. It wasn't uncommon for her to read the entire book in mere hours. She also enjoyed watching movies, listening to oldie-but-goodies, playing tough with the boys, laughing and making jokes. She really enjoyed dancing and having a good time. To see Annette dance to her favorite song, "Set It Off," you'd know the party had just begun!

Annette leaves to mourn: two children, Maurice and Jerkeria Wallace; one niece, that she raised as her own, Veronica Jamison; one stepson, Raphael

Wallace; two grandchildren, Shikera Wallace and Derrick Miller; three brothers,

(her twin) Anthony Hutchins, Howard Hutchins and Tyrone Hutchins; three sisters, Sylvia Matthews, Angela Jowers and Valerie Lomax; two brothers-in-law, Eugene Jowers and Edward Lomax; one sister-in-law, Marion Hutchins; two special friends, Vernon Carter and her children's father, Arnold Wallace; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Antoinette was preceded in death by: three brothers, Ronald L. Hutchins, André S. Hutchins and Bruce D. Hutchins; and two sisters, Shirley D. Hawkins and Geraldine F. Wynn.

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah, our grand Creator.

“ To the family of Mrs. Hutchins: May the memories of your loved one help to ease your pain of sorrow. We all can see our dear loved ones again, right here on this earth but under different conditions (Psalms 37:9,10,11 & 29). When Jesus was on the earth he healed the sick & raised the dead; this was just a preview of what he will do during his Kingdom Rule. I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers. Love,

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

*We'll See This Through
They say this, too, shall pass, they say grief eventually fades.
But those sayings are of little comfort when you're living through such sad days, they say that time heals all And this much I know is true.
So hang in there, my dearest friend, and together we'll see this through
Time
Time brings perspective, time eases the pain.
Time heals the heart, time revives hope. in time, you'll learn to embrace life again.
Whatever You Need...
Whatever you need, whatever we can do.
We want you to know, that we're here for you.
If you just want to talk or need a shoulder to cry on,
We want you to know that, we're here for you to rely on.
However lonely you feel, you definitely are not alone.
We are only as far away as the nearest phone.
So don't hesitate to call, no matter what you need.
We'll rush to your side, with all Heaven's speed.*
